

Leap Over a Wall:

The Life of David

“By My God, I can leap over a wall!”

--David (2 Sam. 22:30)

October 18, 2009

“David and Doeg”

1. David and Goliath is a story of an _____ enemy, while David and Doeg is a story of an _____ enemy.
2. The question is, “Do we _____ Him in practical matters?”
3. David really sees the temple as place to _____ his needs: provision and defense from his enemies.

Do we see our church as a place to help us with our practical needs? Why or why not?

What needs do you see the church meeting most effectively? Least effectively?

4. David represents the _____ sphere while Doeg represents the _____ sphere. At times both spheres can be evident in our lives.
5. If we continue to live in two or more spheres, we are a divided house that will _____.
