The Holy Spirit:
The Dad Side of God

Special Guest Preacher, Mr. Tim Keller

In the last few weeks, we have been learning the role of the Holy Spirit in our lives from John 14-16. We learn that He is our Comforter, Encourager, Guide, and pointer to all truth found in Jesus Christ. Those roles are a good goal for us as fathers, though earthly dads fall short of what it means to always be a Comforter, Encourager, and Guide. The Good News is that the Holy Spirit is never at work late, never needs guy time, and is never tired. As Christians, He is there at all times for our access, sitting in an armchair in the living room of our hearts. This week we will focus on how the Holy Spirit brings out the Dad side of God in our lives.
