Thank you!

History

For more than a decade, the Parish Arts Ministry of Fairlawn Lutheran Church has brought quality free programs and concerts to the Akron area, making it possible for anyone to attend and enjoy a broad variety of concert productions, including: plays; musicals; religious dramas; classical and jazz pianists; string quartets; instrumentalists; organists; hymn festival recitalists; contemporary praise groups; gospel music; college, community and children's choirs; men's and women's glee clubs; vocalists; youth and symphony orchestras.

Attendance and support for these programs has increased through time. We hope you will join us for these concerts and continue to support the efforts of the Parish Arts Committee to bring quality music to the Akron area. These free concerts are made possible by sponsorships and free will offerings.

Parish Arts Concerts

You are cordially invited to experience the wonderful singing and music programs for the 2011-2012 season at Fairlawn Lutheran Church in Fairlawn, Ohio.

14th season!

"Piping Hot: A Panorama of Pastorales, Pedals, and Preludes"

October 2, 2011, Sunday, 3pm

Organ Recital by Mary Ragna Yetter
Organist: United Methodist Church of Kent

Mary Ragna comes to our area from Peoria, Illinois, where she was both a harpsichordist and organ recitalist. She has two degrees from Texas Christian and the University of Memphis, and an advanced certificate from the Royal College of Music in London.

"Singing for Joy"

November 6, 2011, Sunday, 3pm

Kent State Men's and Women's Chorus
Director: Kerry Glann

The Kent State choruses include students from across the campus who have a desire to achieve excellence in choral performance. The choruses will perform together as well as individually. Both groups tour regularly and have appeared at the OMEA Professional Conference.

*Et in terra pax...
"Let There Be Peace on Earth"*

December 4, 2011, Sunday, 3pm

Master Singers, Inc. Chorale
Director: J. D. Goddard

The MSI Chorale will present original compositions expressly written for this concert primarily based on the Latin text: "Et in terra pax." This year's Christmas concert will be an exciting experience for both performers and audience, featuring organ, brass and soloists.

Gigout, Handel and Mozart

February 12, 2012, Sunday, 3pm

Falls River Brass Quintet
Organist: Gary J. Pinter

The Falls River Brass will present selections by Gigout, Handel and Mozart, accompanied by organ. They will also feature several patriotic pieces and compositions without organ. Additional organ solos by Charpentier and Walton will complete the program.

"Spring Tour 2012"

March 4, 2012, Sunday, 3pm

Valparaiso University Chorale
Director: Dr. Christopher M. Cock

The Valparaiso University Chorale is among the top Lutheran collegiate choirs in the U.S. performing the highest standard of choral art. The Chorale has received international acclaim and served three residencies at the Thomaskirche in Leipzig, where J.S. Bach served as cantor.

"Festival of Music"

May 6, 2012, Sunday, 3pm

6th Annual High School Choir Festival
Copley-Fairlawn, Revere & Firestone Choirs
Directors: Basil Kochan, Dr. Deborah DeVore & Sally Schneider

The three high school choirs and their superb directors repeatedly thrill audiences with their individual performances and mass group selection.

Apollo's Fire Concerts
