Sunday Morning Bible Studies, 10:00-11:00am

Formative Family Teaching

Location: Fellowship Hall

How do parents foster a strong family that encompasses both love and support?

The focus of the class will be on what parents are teaching their kids when they don't think they are teaching. It will be case study based on real life scenarios that explore day to day family choices and struggles that inform and shape children in their growth as disciples of Jesus Christ. (Pastor Adam Thompson)

The WHOLE Bible

Location: Chapel

Did you know that the Bible has an overall story arc?

The Bible is not about what we must do, but about what He has done for us and why this is important and significant for contemporary human beings today. In a few weeks, we will cover the WHOLE bible from creation through His return. (Blaise Congeni/Dave Kohlmeier)

Ecclesiastes: Chasing after Meaning (Women's Study)

Location: Choir Room

Are you tired of pat answers to hard questions of faith?

The writer of Ecclesiastes is not afraid to confront your dilemmas: "Where can I find fulfillment?", "Who is really in control of this world?", "Is there any value in my work, my struggles, my life?" As you explore this fascinating Old Testament book, you will discover how God brings meaning to the world and how following God brings meaning to your life. (Susan Stephens)

Grieving Hand in Hand with Christ

Location: Library

Grief can be overwhelming - for those who grieve and those of us who want to support them.

This group will explore the stages of grief from a spiritual and scriptural perspective. We'll look at grief and loss encountered at every stage of life and identify how loss helps us build reliance on Christ and engages faith, hope, grace, and love. This group will be helpful for anyone wanting to understand more about their own process of grieving and/or wanting to communicate compassionately with others who are grieving. (Laura Balliet)
