Our mission is to educate, equip and empower people to grow in their relationship with Christ. Bible Studies are open to all – members and non-members alike! Sessions begin March 3 unless otherwise indicated.

Sunday Morning Bible Studies, 10:00-11:00am

Two Epistles, One Hostile World

Location: Fellowship Hall

Life can be overwhelming!

Two epistles address some of the greatest challenges we have in America today. Colossians addresses false teachers who suggest that there is some hidden knowledge or “mystery” that must be discovered in addition to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Ephesians challenges believers to live as representatives of Christ in a hostile world where persecution and suffering are inevitable. In a world where we are constantly being challenged in our thinking, understanding what the Word of God says will help guide us into truth. (Pastor Jim Gau)

Psalms

Location: Chapel

Did you know the book of Psalms captures the entire range of the human condition?

Most people who know anything about the Bible know a few “literary gems” from the Psalms. But if you are not satisfied with a few oft-quoted verses, then come to a full banquet. You are invited to sit down at the table and enjoy the spiritual food found in the Psalms. Real people, who had real problems and joys, wrote the Psalms. Just as God spoke to the writers of the Psalms, so He speaks to you today. (Blaise Congeni/Dave Kohlmeier)

Waiting (Women’s Study) THIS CLASS BEGINS MARCH 10

Location: Choir Room

Waiting can be agony. What if waiting is God’s classroom?

Waiting focuses on the lives of eight biblical women who waited and yearned and ached. The study highlights principles that make these times more bearable, and maybe more meaningful, even if it feels like God isn’t present or there’s nothing we can do. Learn how to surrender your worries to God, handle the daily-ness of waiting, and draw closer to Jesus. (Kim Hornyak)

Catechism 101/New Member Class

Location: Library

In Luther’s words, the catechism “is a short summary of the entire Holy Scripture.”

It is a summary and guide for believers, as they learn and reflect on the truths of God’s Word. In this Foundations in Faith series we will explore Luther’s Small Catechism – this session is for those considering membership at Fairlawn Lutheran and for anyone who would like a “refresher” on the catechism. Participants will learn how the catechism presents God’s Word in a clear, understandable way, in order to bring God’s people to faith in Christ and to a daily life shaped and empowered by Word and Sacrament. (Pastor Adam Thompson)

Youth Bible Study

Location: Youth Room

Students in grades 7-12 are invited to this study that focuses on God’s plan for them. (Tim Keller)

Sunday School

Location: Lower level preschool

Children age 3 - grade 6 are to be led in worship, prayer, games, Bible stories, crafts and more as they learn about Jesus.
