- I. God Just Can't Forgive. Someone Has to Pay.
 - a. The victim or society is devalued.
 - b. The destroyer is not just coming for Egyptians.
 - c. The Israelites, even though oppressed, are no more morally acceptable. V 12:22.
 - d. This is spiritual egalitarianism.
 - e. In addition, the guilt of some may be transferred to one-cultural substitutionism.
 - f. In every house, there will be either a dead sheep or dead son.
 - g. You need to get yourself out of the radical individualism of this cultural moment.
- II. Behold (grasp) the Lamb of God! Clilp-28-35.
 - a. Jesus serves as the presider but does not say this is the bread of affliction. Instead, He said this is my body.
 - b. There is no lamb at the table but instead, He is the lamb of God. Jn 19:33., Ex 12:5, Matt 27 had to be at dusk. Ex – “at twilight.”
